

Luc (doesn't emote much)

Aside from being the main protagonist, Luc is a young boy, about eight, struggling to survive his mundane reality. He's a quiet kid, preferring to let other people do the talking, but he has quite the personality, if you can get into his head. His greatest weapon is by far his wild imagination.

Slihte (thinks he's so cool)

Luc's big brother, and one of the few adults who play a prominent part in his story. He's the cool kid character through and through, and is expressive enough for the both of them. While Luc mainly shows expressions in his dreamscapes, Slihte makes the mundane more interesting with his confident and determined persona.

Yuki (excitable pomeranian)

The family pet and quite an excitable little thing. The prospect of pets, walks, or food alike will get her going. When she barks and tackles people, she does so with love.
